deadlines set forth in the Order Granting Urgent Motion for Extension of Deadlines [ECF No. 20230] (the “Scheduling Order”)².

Background

1. On June 22, 2021, forty-four (44) correction officers (the “Movants”) of the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (“DCR”), an entity of the Commonwealth, filed a Motion Requesting Order for Allowance of Administrative Expense Priority Claim and Request for Immediate Payment Filed by Forty-Four Correction Officers of the Department of Correction and Rehabilitation of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico [ECF No. 17134] (the “Motion”), requesting that the Court enter an order (i) for “the allowance of the amounts claimed by the Movants as an administrative expense priority from the date of the filing of the Title III Commonwealth case and from then on”, (ii) directing the Commonwealth to pay such amounts in “full, and final satisfaction” within sixty (60) days of entry of such order, (iii) directing the Debtor to continue issuing payments on a monthly basis and (iv) ordering the Trial Court of Aguadilla, in connection with certain state court litigations related to Movants’ request in their Motion, to “make the necessary adjustment to the ‘KRONOS’ time register system to register as overtime the 30 minute hour work during mealtime periods”. See, Motion at p. 17-18.

2. On March 1, 2022, the Court entered the Scheduling Order, which provides that oppositions to the Motion must be filed by March 30, 2022, and Movants’ reply by April 14, 2022.

² The Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico, as the Commonwealth’s representative pursuant to section 315(b) of the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management, and Economic Stability Act (“PROMESA”), has authorized AAFAF to file this Urgent Motion on behalf of the Commonwealth.

Request for Relief

3. Since the filing of the Motion, the Commonwealth has conducted multiple internal reviews of their books and records to evaluate the merits—or lack thereof—of the claims made in the Motion for the periods included therein. Such analysis, among other things, entailed a corroboration of whether all of the Movants pertaining to the Motion were active in the DCR for the periods for which relief was sought.

4. At this juncture, the Commonwealth is in the process of evaluating information in order to finalize its internal review. However, in the interest of expediting the reconciliation efforts, a portion of the Commonwealth's analysis has been advanced to Movants for their evaluation. The Commonwealth reached out to Movants' counsel who has consented to the requested extension.

5. Accordingly, the Commonwealth, with Movants' consent, proposes the following extensions of the deadlines set forth in the Scheduling Order:

- The deadline to respond to the Motion shall be extended to April 21, 2022.
- The deadline for Movants to file a reply to an opposition, if any, shall be extended to May 9, 2022.
- The Court will thereafter take the Motion on submission, unless the Court determines that a hearing is necessary.

6. Pursuant to Paragraph I.H of the Sixteenth Amended Notice, Case Management and Administrative Procedures [ECF No. 20190-1] (the "Case Management Procedures"), the Commonwealth hereby certifies that it has carefully examined the matter and concluded that there is a true need for an urgent motion; it has not created the urgency through any lack of due diligence; has made a bona fide effort to resolve the matter without a hearing; has made reasonable, good-faith communications in an effort to resolve or narrow the issues that are being brought to the Court, and no party opposes the relief requested herein.

Notice

7. The Commonwealth has provided notice of this Urgent Motion in accordance with the Case Management Procedures to the following parties: (a) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Puerto Rico; (b) the indenture trustees and/or agents, as applicable, for the Debtors' bonds; (c) the entities on the list of creditors holding the 20 largest unsecured claims against COFINA; (d) counsel to the statutory committees appointed in these Title III cases; (e) the Office of the United States Attorney for the District of Puerto Rico; (f) counsel to the Oversight Board; (g) the Puerto Rico Department of Justice; (h) all parties filing a notice of appearance in these Title III cases; and (i) Movants. A copy of the Urgent Motion is also available on the Commonwealth's case website at <https://cases.primeclerk.com/puertorico/>.

8. The Commonwealth submits that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

WHEREFORE, the Commonwealth requests the Court enter the Proposed Order and grant such other relief as is just and proper.
